Why should you use cellblockex for lithium ion batteries?

The most trusted name in battery safety provides proven solutions to help you store or ship lithium-ion batteries. CellBlockEX is the environmentally-friendly, mineral-based extinguishing agent used for fire fighting and prevention of problematic fires including metal, lithium-ion battery cells, and combustible liquids.

What is a lithium ion battery incident Kit?

Empower and protect with the LIBIK System. Our Lithium Ion Battery Incident Kit (LIBIK) is a full line of fire suppression tools that are versatile, simple and effective. The LIBIK is a robust solution to a wide variety of battery fire situations involving personal electronic devices (PED).

How does a cellblock extinguish a lithium-ion battery fire?

The CellBlockEX absorbs the smoke, gases, and flammable electrolyte associated with a lithium-ion battery fire and extinguishes it. This would prevent the need to divert an aircraft in flight since the hazards would be contained.

Is cellblockex safe to ship batteries?

Since the granulate is 100% mineral based - it's safe for you and the environment. Ship batteries with confidence by land, air or sea. CellBlockEX is at the core of many of our shipping solutions, including Class-D packaging for damaged, defective, and recycled (DDR) lithium-ion batteries.

How does a lithium battery work?

The phase change from solid to semi-liquid acts as a heat sink, dissipating energy, while forming an impervious hard shell around the fire load. The formed crystalline capsule around the battery prevents ignition of surrounding areas of energy density, including adjacent cells or batteries in proximity.

The cell design was first modeled using a physics-based cell model of a lithium-ion battery sub-module with both charge and discharge events and porous positive and negative electrodes. We assume that the copper foil is used as an anode and an aluminum foil is used as a cathode. Commercially available thicknesses of these foils are 9 and 16 μm ...
