We are an association representing Puerto Rico's solar and energy storage industries bringing reliable, clean, affordable and local energy to the entire island. We advocate solar and storage technologies as a central solution to the energy needs of Puerto Rico, and promote public policy that will benefit the growth of these industries.

"Almost seven years after Hurricane Maria, Puerto Rico's grid remains antiquated and unable to provide reliable service. The blackouts Puerto Rico is experiencing are another example of why rooftop solar is so critical for providing resiliency to households," said Tom Sanzillo, IEEFA director of financial analysis and author of the report.

In February 2024, DOE launched the Programa Acceso Solar through the PR-ERF to connect low-income Puerto Rican households with subsidized residential solar and battery storage systems. Residents of ...
