A parade led by a detachment of the Falkland Islands Defence Force in 2007. On 1 April 1982, alongside the Royal Marines party, the FIDF was mobilised to defend the Islands from the Argentine invasion. Many of its members lived in remote settlements so given the limited notice of its approximately 120 men some 32 turned out. [14] The following day, Sir Rex Hunt ...

The excellent news for us is that batteries last better in cooler climates (but not too cold), and the slower charging rates available in the Falkland Islands will also help to prolong the life of the battery. Our vehicles are selected to ensure that they are some of the best in the world for battery longevity, comparable to industry leaders Tesla.
