It changed its name from Dubai World Central ("DWC") to Dubai South in 2015. Dubai South has its well detailed-master plan including several districts dedicated to logistics, aviation, humanitarian sector, residential, commercial, leisure, exhibition and commercial around the centerpiece of the plan which is the airport.

DWC systems do not lend themselves to stacking as they function on a single, horizontal plane. This means that you need to space your plants efficiently. To achieve this, make sure that you match your plant site spacing to your plant size. Taking the above into consideration, let's look at some plants best suited to a DWC system: Lettuce ...
